

The Kingdom of Doubt

Doubt is a worry
that winds up the mind

Doubt knows the what if
But can't solve the why

Doubt feels the pressure
To stand and be heard

Doubt is the person
Who won't say a word

Doubt feels uncertain
In moments of peace

Doubt finds the problems
In all that he seeks

Doubt causes anguish
If life turns to gloom

Doubt needs to give up
Before fear consumes

Doubt fills the prophet
Who speaks without truth

Doubt heeds the warnings
Of those without proof

Doubt is the kingdom
Of what might have been

Doubt can't be open
When love comes again

By John Frederick Zurn ©February 2019

Published: Stressless Country – Easy Poems to Memorize February 2019
<https://www.stresslesscountry.com/easypoemsmemorize2/>